

MENSTRUAL HYGIENE WEBINAR SERIES

WASH United, Simavi, World Vision and GIZ are launching a webinar series on menstrual hygiene as an activity under the MH Alliance. The webinars will take place every Thursday starting on 31 May 2018. The topic of each webinar will be introduced by an expert such as Marni Sommer (Columbia University) and Chris Bobel (The Society for Menstrual Cycle Research) and followed by presentations from organisations working in Asia and Africa.

TOPICS

Webinar 1	Webinar 2	Webinar 3	Webinar 4	Webinar 5
Menstrual hygiene: the issue, evidence and gaps	Solutions to improve knowledge, practices and attitude	Creating access to menstrual products	Infrastructure solutions for MH	Advocating for MH (live at HLPF in New York)
31 May	7 June	14 June	21 June	11/12 July

The webinars are free-of-charge and open to all interested professionals and individuals from all sectors. These webinars will be recorded and posted online for future access.

To join the webinars or receive more information, you can register here: <http://bit.ly/mhws-register>

The Menstrual Hygiene webinar series is an activity of the MH Alliance www.mh-alliance.net

